Employment Authorization & Acknowledgement

Employment: I understand that my Worksite Employer has entered into an Agreement with Key HR or an affiliated company (“KEY”) whereby KEY has agreed to provide certain specifically identified employment related services for me and my Worksite Employer. I understand that my Worksite Employer will still manage, direct and control day-to-day activities, and that I remain an at-will leased employee. Employment is on a probationary basis for the first ninety (90) days after hiring.

Acknowledgment/Disclaimer of Employment Status: I understand I will NOT be considered a KEY employee for any purpose until a completed New Employee Packet and required paperwork is fully COMPLETED and RECEIVED by KEY.

Wages: I acknowledge that my Worksite Employer is responsible for paying my wages. In the event my Worksite Employer does not pay KEY for services provided by me to my Worksite Employer for a particular pay period, KEY may terminate the Agreement with the Worksite Employer, with no further obligations to me or my Worksite Employer. If the Agreement with my Worksite Employer remains in place, KEY may terminate my employment with no further obligations, or may elect to pay me for such pay period no more than the then-current minimum wage rate and my applicable overtime pay based on such minimum wage rate or the minimum salary for that pay period, as permitted by law. I understand that my Worksite Employer remains ultimately obligated to me for any unpaid wages I may be due. In the event that my Worksite Employer files a petition in bankruptcy at a time when monies are due to KEY from my Worksite Employer for wages paid to me, I hereby assign KEY any and all rights I have to assert a priority wage claim in the bankruptcy proceeding. I also authorize KEY and its affiliates to initiate any adjustments on future wages for any entries made in error.

Unemployment: I hereby agree to notify KEY in the event I resign or am terminated by my Worksite Employer, regardless of the reason within 48 hours for possible reassignment and that unemployment benefits may be denied if I fail to do so.

Safety/Injuries: I agree to immediately report to KEY and my Worksite Employer any accidents or injuries I suffer while working or while on my Worksite Employer’s premises. I further agree to follow all safety rules and regulations established by either KEY or my Worksite Employer and realize that failure to do so may alter any workers’ compensation benefits provided to me. In recognition of the fact that any work related injuries which might be sustained by me are covered by state Workers’ Compensation statutes, and to avoid the circumvention of such state statutes which may result in suits against the customers or clients of KEY based on the same injury or injuries, and to the extent permitted by law, I hereby waive and forever release any rights I might have to make claims or bring suits against any client or customer of KEY for damages based upon injuries which are covered under such Workers’ Compensation statutes.

Drug Testing: I understand that KEY or my Worksite Employer may now have, or may establish, a drug -free workplace or a drug and/or alcohol testing program consistent with applicable federal, state, or local law. I understand that, pursuant to the Worksite Employer’s policy and federal, state, or local law, I may, as a condition of hire or continued employment, be subject to urinalysis and/or blood screening or other medically recognized tests designed to detect the presence of alcohol or controlled drugs. I also understand that I may be subject to an alcohol and/or drug test before any treatment of a work-related accident or injury. I understand that refusal to submit to an alcohol and/or drug test may be considered a positive test result and/or grounds for termination.

Background Check: I understand that all information contained in this New Employee Packet is subject to verification. In the event my Worksite Employer required a complete background and/or credit check, I authorize and consent, to the extent permitted by federal, state, and local law, to allow my Worksite Employer, KEY, or their respective agent(s) to obtain information including, but not limited to, motor vehicle reports (driving records), credit history, employment or educational references, criminal history, and any other information concerning me.

Duty to Report Harassment: KEY does not and will not tolerate harassment of or discrimination against employees, applicants, customers or vendors. All KEY employees are strictly prohibited from engaging in any form of harassing and/or discriminatory conduct. If you think you are being harassed or discriminated against by another employee, manager, customer, or vendor, you should promptly notify the Worksite Employer’s President and the Human Resource Department at KEY, 6959 University Blvd , Winter Park FL 32792; telephone 800.922.4133; fax 800.955.8144, whereupon the matter will be discreetly and thoroughly investigated. Immediate steps will be taken to stop any improper behavior. Disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment, will be taken, when appropriate, against the offender(s). I agree that if at any time during my employment I am subject to any type of discrimination, including but not limited to discrimination because of race, sex, including same-sex, sexual orientation, pregnancy, age, religion, color, military status, veteran status, national origin, citizenship, handicap, disability, or marital status, or if I am subject to any type of harassment, including but not limited to sexual harassment, or any other treatment which I believe is unfair or improper, I will immediately contact the Worksite Employer’s President and the Human Resource Department at KEY, telephone 800.922.4133 , in order to obtain assistance in the resolution of such matters.

Authorizing Release: I hereby authorize any party or agency contacted by my Worksite Employer, KEY, or their respective agent(s) to furnish information requested. I understand that I may be required to complete additional releases authorizing my Worksite Employer or its agents to investigate all statements contained in this or any other employment related documents. I hereby release, discharge, and hold harmless, to the extent permitted by federal, state, or local law, my Worksite Employer, KEY, their respective agent(s), and any party delivering information to them pursuant to this authorization from any liabilities, claims, charges, or cause of action that I may have a result of gathering delivery or disclosure of any requested information.

TIP: Consider using the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App to determine the most accurate withholding for the rest of the year if: you are completing this form after the beginning of the year; expect to work only part of the year; or have changes during the year in your marital status, number of jobs for you (and/or your spouse if married filing jointly), dependents, other income (not from jobs), deductions, or credits. Have your most recent pay stub(s) from this year available when using the estimator. At the beginning of next year, use the estimator again to recheck your withholding.

Complete Steps 2–4 ONLY if they apply to you; otherwise, skip to Step 5. See page 2 for more information on each step, who can claim exemption from withholding, and when to use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App.

Step 2:
Multiple Jobs
or Spouse Works

Complete this step if you (1) hold more than one job at a time, or (2) are married filing jointly and your spouse also works. The correct amount of withholding depends on income earned from all of these jobs.

Do only one of the following.

(a) Use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App for the most accurate withholding for this step (and Steps 3–4). If you or your spouse have self-employment income, use this option; or

(b) Use the Multiple Jobs Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result in Step 4(c) below; or

(c) If there are only two jobs total, you may check this box. Do the same on Form W-4 for the other job. This option is generally more accurate than (b) if pay at the lower paying job is more than half of the pay at the higher paying job. Otherwise, (b) is more accurate

Complete Steps 3–4(b) on Form W-4 for only ONE of these jobs. Leave those steps blank for the other jobs. (Your withholding will be most accurate if you complete Steps 3–4(b) on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.)

Step 3: Claim Dependent and Other Credits	If your total income will be $200,000 or less ($400,000 or less if married filing jointly): Multiply the number of qualifying children under age 17 by $2,000 $ _____ Multiply the number of other dependents by $500 $ _____ Add the amounts above for qualifying children and other dependents. You may add to this the amount of any other credits. Enter the total here	3	$
Step 4 (optional): Other Adjustments	(a) Other income (not from jobs). If you want tax withheld for other income you expect this year that won't have withholding, enter the amount of other income here. This may include interest, dividends, and retirement income	4(a)	$
	(b) Deductions. If you expect to claim deductions other than the standard deduction and want to reduce your withholding, use the Deductions Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result here	4(b)	$
	(c) Extra withholding. Enter any additional tax you want withheld each pay period	4(c)	$

Future Developments

For the latest information about developments related to Form W-4, such as legislation enacted after it was published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW4.

Purpose of Form

Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. If too little is withheld, you will generally owe tax when you file your tax return and may owe a penalty. If too much is withheld, you will generally be due a refund. Complete a new Form W-4 when changes to your personal or financial situation would change the entries on the form. For more information on withholding and when you must furnish a new Form W-4, see Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Exemption from withholding. You may claim exemption from withholding for 2025 if you meet both of the following conditions: you had no federal income tax liability in 2024 and you expect to have no federal income tax liability in 2025. You had no federal income tax liability in 2024 if (1) your total tax on line 24 on your 2024 Form 1040 or 1040-SR is zero (or less than the sum of lines 27, 28, and 29), or (2) you were not required to file a return because your income was below the filing threshold for your correct filing status. If you claim exemption, you will have no income tax withheld from your paycheck and may owe taxes and penalties when you file your 2025 tax return. To claim exemption from withholding, certify that you meet both of the conditions above by writing "Exempt" on Form W-4 in the space below Step 4(c). Then, complete Steps 1(a), 1(b), and 5. Do not complete any other steps. You will need to submit a new Form W-4 by February 17, 2026.

Your privacy. Steps 2(c) and 4(a) ask for information regarding income you received from sources other than the job associated with this Form W-4. If you have concerns with providing the information asked for in Step 2(c), you may choose Step 2(b) as an alternative; if you have concerns with providing the information asked for in Step 4(a), you may enter an additional amount you want withheld per pay period in Step 4(c) as an alternative.

When to use the estimator. Consider using the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App if you:

1. Are submitting this form after the beginning of the year;
2. Expect to work only part of the year;
3. Have changes during the year in your marital status, number of jobs for you (and/or your spouse if married filing jointly), or number of dependents, or changes in your deductions or credits;
4. Receive dividends, capital gains, social security, bonuses, or business income, or are subject to the Additional Medicare Tax or Net Investment Income Tax; or
5. Prefer the most accurate withholding for multiple job situations.

TIP: Have your most recent pay stub(s) from this year available when using the estimator to account for federal income tax that has already been withheld this year. At the beginning of next year, use the estimator again to recheck your withholding.

Self-employment. Generally, you will owe both income and self-employment taxes on any self-employment income you receive separate from the wages you receive as an employee. If you want to pay these taxes through withholding from your wages, use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App to figure the amount to have withheld.

Nonresident alien. If you're a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Specific Instructions

Step 1(c). Check your anticipated filing status. This will determine the standard deduction and tax rates used to compute your withholding.

Step 2. Use this step if you (1) have more than one job at the same time, or (2) are married filing jointly and you and your spouse both work. Submit a separate Form W-4 for each job.

Option (a) most accurately calculates the additional tax you need to have withheld, while option (b) does so with a little less accuracy.

Instead, if you (and your spouse) have a total of only two jobs, you may check the box in option (c). The box must also be checked on the Form W-4 for the other job. If the box is checked, the standard deduction and tax brackets will be cut in half for each job to calculate withholding. This option is accurate for jobs with similar pay; otherwise, more tax than necessary may be withheld, and this extra amount will be larger the greater the difference in pay is between the two jobs.

Multiple jobs. Complete Steps 3 through 4(b) on only one Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you do this on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Step 3. This step provides instructions for determining the amount of the child tax credit and the credit for other dependents that you may be able to claim when you file your tax return. To qualify for the child tax credit, the child must be under age 17 as of December 31, must be your dependent who generally lives with you for more than half the year, and must have the required social security number. You may be able to claim a credit for other dependents for whom a child tax credit can't be claimed, such as an older child or a qualifying relative. For additional eligibility requirements for these credits, see Pub. 501, Dependents, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information. You can also include other tax credits for which you are eligible in this step, such as the foreign tax credit and the education tax credits. To do so, add an estimate of the amount for the year to your credits for dependents and enter the total amount in Step 3. Including these credits will increase your paycheck and reduce the amount of any refund you may receive when you file your tax return.

Step 4 (optional).

Step 4(a). Enter in this step the total of your other estimated income for the year, if any. You shouldn't include income from any jobs or self-employment. If you complete Step 4(a), you likely won't have to make estimated tax payments for that income. If you prefer to pay estimated tax rather than having tax on other income withheld from your paycheck, see Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals.

Step 4(b). Enter in this step the amount from the Deductions Worksheet, line 5, if you expect to claim deductions other than the basic standard deduction on your 2025 tax return and want to reduce your withholding to account for these deductions. This includes both itemized deductions and other deductions such as for student loan interest and IRAs.

Step 4(c). Enter in this step any additional tax you want withheld from your pay each pay period, including any amounts from the Multiple Jobs Worksheet, line 4. Entering an amount here will reduce your paycheck and will either increase your refund or reduce any amount of tax that you owe.

Step 2(b) – Multiple Jobs Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

If you choose the option in Step 2(b) on Form W-4, complete this worksheet (which calculates the total extra tax for all jobs) on only ONE Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you complete the worksheet and enter the result on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job. To be accurate, submit a new Form W-4 for all other jobs if you have not updated your withholding since 2019.

Note: If more than one job has annual wages of more than $120,000 or there are more than three jobs, see Pub. 505 for additional tables; or, you can use the online withholding estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App.

- 1 Two jobs. If you have two jobs or you're married filing jointly and you and your spouse each have one job, find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4. Using the "Higher Paying Job" row and the "Lower Paying Job" column, find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 1. Then, skip to line 3 2 Three jobs. If you and/or your spouse have three jobs at the same time, complete lines 2a, 2b, and 2c below. Otherwise, skip to line 3.
a Find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4 using the annual wages from the highest paying job in the "Higher Paying Job" row and the annual wages for your next highest paying job in the "Lower Paying Job" column. Find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 2a
b Add the annual wages of the two highest paying jobs from line 2a together and use the total as the wages in the "Higher Paying Job" row and use the annual wages for your third job in the "Lower Paying Job" column to find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4 and enter this amount on line 2b
c Add the amounts from lines 2a and 2b and enter the result on line 2c
3 Enter the number of pay periods per year for the highest paying job. For example, if that job pays weekly, enter 52; if it pays every other week, enter 26; if it pays monthly, enter 12, etc.
4 Divide the annual amount on line 1 or line 2c by the number of pay periods on line 3. Enter this amount here and in Step 4(c) of Form W-4 for the highest paying job (along with any other additional amount you want withheld)

Step 4(b) – Deductions Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

- 1 Enter an estimate of your 2025 itemized deductions (from Schedule A (Form 1040)). Such deductions may include qualifying home mortgage interest, charitable contributions, state and local taxes (up to $10,000), and medical expenses in excess of 7.5% of your income
2 Enter: { $30,000 if you're married filing jointly or a qualifying surviving spouse; $22,500 if you're head of household; $15,000 if you're single or married filing separately }
3 If line 1 is greater than line 2, subtract line 2 from line 1 and enter the result here. If line 2 is greater than line 1, enter "-0-"
4 Enter an estimate of your student loan interest, deductible IRA contributions, and certain other adjustments (from Part II of Schedule 1 (Form 1040)). See Pub. 505 for more information
5 Add lines 3 and 4. Enter the result here and in Step 4(b) of Form W-4
